

February 2024 Newsletter

Last Saturday the 27th of January was our anniversary. So, I took Ann out for a nice meal and we had a lovely time.

It made me think of 34 years ago (really! That long ago?) When I said those vows/ promises, before God and a church full of witnesses.

Even if you are not married; I am sure you know the gist of it all. You have to care for your loved one through thick and thin, love them in good times and bad, even if you are broke or loaded.

What about our promises to God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit? Some of us may have made promises to them and can remember the day. Whilst others have just grown to love them over time?

The date of my wedding to Ann is a good reminder to me of my continuing love for her. Maybe we all need to make a date with Jesus and remind ourselves to tell him how much we love him.

Don't wait for Valentine's Day, do it today and every day.

Brian
